SUBJECT No. 391.

Kannada composition and translation to be made a compulsory subject for the Mysore Civil Service Examination.

Mr. M. Venkatakrishnaiya and other members of the Representative Assembly.

Summary of discussion.—A good knowledge of Kannada language is necessary on the part of officers in order that they may understand the feelings and aspirations of the people. It is therefore suggested that Kannada composition and translation at least of the S. S. L. C. standard be prescribed as a compulsory subject for the Mysore Civil Service Examination.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

SUBJECT No. 392.

Recommendations of the Judicial Conference.

Mr. M. Venkatakrishaiya and other members of the Representative Assembly.

Summary of discussion.—The public are disappointed to see that most of the recommendations of the Judicial Conference have not found favor with Government. These recommendations may be reconsidered and a Conference ordered to be held once in three years.

Reply of Government.—Government considered the questions very carefully and passed suitable orders in each case. A Conference will be held by Government whenever they deem it is required.
